Senator Green offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend C.S.S.B. 958 by striking all below the enacting clause and substituting in lieu thereof the following:

SECTION 1. Section 11.08, Family Code, is amended by amending subsections (c) and (d) to read as follows:

(c) ~~The petition and other matters in a suit in which a determination of paternity is sought, if the petitioner is a person other than the alleged father of the child, are confidential, and the district clerk and employees of the clerk may not disclose to any person other than the court, the department, or a party to the suit any matter concerning the suit. This subsection does not apply if and when the suit is set for trial under Subsection (b) of Section 13.05 of this code.~~

(d)] A petition in any suit for adoption or any suit for appointment of a nonparent managing conservator with authority to consent to adoption of a child must include:

(1) a sworn allegation that there has been compliance with Chapter 45, Human Resources Code; or

(2) if there has not been compliance with Chapter 45, Human Resources Code, a sworn statement of the particular reasons for that noncompliance.

SECTION 2. Section 11.14 (j), Family Code, is amended to read as follows:

(j) In any suit seeking the establishment of the parent-child relationship, after a hearing the court shall grant a motion for a preferential setting for a final hearing on the merits, jury or non-jury, filed by a party to the suit or by the attorney or guardian ad litem for the child and shall give precedence to that hearing over other civil cases if discovery has been completed or sufficient time has elapsed since the filing of the suit for the completion of all necessary and reasonable discovery if diligently pursued.

SECTION 3. Section 12.02, Texas Family Code, is amended to read as follows:

(a) A man is presumed to be the biological father of a child if:

(1) he and the child's biological mother are or have been married to each other and the child is born during the marriage or not more than 300 days after the date the marriage terminated by death, annulment, divorce, or by having been declared void;

(2) before the child's birth, he and the child's biological mother attempted to marry each other by a marriage in apparent compliance with law, although the attempted marriage is or could be declared void, and the child is born during the attempted marriage or not more than 300 days after the date the attempted marriage terminated by death, annulment, divorce, or by having been declared void;

(3) after the child's birth, he and the child's biological mother have married or attempted to marry each other by a marriage in apparent compliance with law, although the attempted marriage is or could be declared void or voided by annulment, and:

(A) he has filed a written acknowledgment of his paternity of the child under Chapter 13 of this code;

(B) he consents in writing to be named and is named as the child's father on the child's birth certificate; or

(C) he is obligated to support the child under a written voluntary promise or by court order;

(4) without attempting to marry the mother, he consents in writing to be named as the child's father on the child's birth certificate; or

(5) before the child reaches the age of majority, he receives the child into his home and openly holds out the child as his biological child.

(b) A presumption under this subsection (a) may be rebutted only by clear and convincing evidence.

(c) Unless the contrary is proven by the preponderance of the evidence, a man is presumed to be the biological father of a child under the following circumstances:

(1) While not sharing a household with the child's mother, he contributes substantially to the support of the child, and he is named as the child's father on the child's birth certificate at birth;

(2) he clearly recognizes the child as his biological child in writing;

(3) he openly holds the child out as his biological child; or

(4) he was openly cohabitating with the mother throughout the entire biologically possible time of conception.

(d) If two or more presumptions arise that conflict, the presumption that is founded on the weightier considerations of policy and logic controls. The presumption is rebutted by a court decree establishing the paternity of the child by another man.

SECTION 4. Section 13.01, Family Code, is amended by amending the caption of Section 13.01 and subsections (a) and (b) to read as follows:

Sec. 13.01. ~~[Parties:] [Time] Limitation of [Suit] Actions (a) [A suit to establish the parent-child relationship between a child who has no presumed father and the child's biological father may be brought by the mother, by a man claiming to be or possibly to be the father, or by any other person or governmental entity having standing to sue under Section 11.03 of this code.] A suit to establish paternity may be brought before the birth of the child, throughout the life of the alleged father, and at any time after the alleged father's death. For purposes of determining paternity under this chapter, the term "child" includes adult biological descendants [but must be brought on or before the second anniversary of the day the child becomes an adult, or the suit is barred].~~

(b) The children to whom this section applies include a child for whom a paternity action was brought or might have been brought, but was dismissed or might have been dismissed because a statute of limitations [of less than 18 years] was in effect.

SECTION 5. Section 13.02, Family Code, is amended by adding Subsections (e) and (f) to read as follows:

(e) If the child or either of the child's reputed biological parents is deceased, the court shall, unless all parties agree otherwise, and subject to the limitations of subsection (a) of this section:

(1) order the decedent's parents, brothers, sisters, children, and the respective mother of each of decedent's children to submit to the taking of samples for scientifically accepted paternity testing as provided in subsection (a) of this section; and

(2) if the results of such testing are inconclusive, order disinterment for scientific testing.

(f) The Court may enforce its orders to submit to scientific testing under subsection (e) by contempt, and may impose any other appropriate sanction for noncompliance.

SECTION 6. Section 13.05, Family Code, is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 13.05. Pretrial Proceedings: Effect of ~~[Blood]~~ Paternity Tests. (a) At the conclusion of the pretrial conference, if the court finds that the tests show by clear and convincing evidence that the alleged father is not the father of the child, the court shall dismiss the suit with prejudice.

(b) If the court finds that the paternity tests do not exclude the alleged father as the father of the child, and the results of the paternity testing do not exclude at least 95 percent of the male population from the possibility of being the father of the child, then the court shall set the suit for trial.

(c) If the court finds that the paternity tests fail to exclude the alleged father as the father of the child, and finds that at least 95 percent of the male population is excluded from the possibility of being the father, the court shall at the pretrial conference find and order that the burden of proof shifts to the party opposing the establishment of the alleged father's paternity and set the case for trial.

(d) The existence of a presumption of paternity shall not deprive the party asserting paternity of the right to open and close in the presentation of evidence and argument at trial.

SECTION 7. Section 13.22(b), Family Code, is amended to read as follows:

(b) The statement of paternity must clearly state that [:

~~(1) the father]~~ the man signing the statement acknowledges the child as his biological child [;

~~(2) he and the mother, who is named in the statement, were not married to each other at the time of conception of the child or at any subsequent time; and~~

~~(3) the child is not the biological child of another man].~~

SECTION 8. Section 13.42(a), Family Code, is amended to read as follows:

(a) In a suit in which a determination of paternity is sought, the court may provide for the managing and possessory conservatorship and support of and access to the child; except that no alleged father denying paternity may be required to make any payment for the support of the child until paternity is established or the alleged father is not excluded as the biological father of the child and at least 95 percent of the male population is excluded from being the biological father of the child. On a finding of paternity, the court may order support retroactive to the time of the birth [filing] of the child [suit] and, on a proper showing, may order a party to pay an equitable portion of all prenatal and postnatal related health care expenses of the mother and child. This section does not preclude the court from rendering an order pursuant to Section 14.062 of this code that requires a parent to reimburse the state for public assistance paid for the support of the child.

SECTION 9. Section 42(b)(1), Texas Probate Code, is amended to read as follows:

(b) Paternal Inheritance. (1) For the purpose of inheritance, a child is the child of his biological father if the child is presumed to be the father's child [born under circumstances described by Section 12.02], under the Family Code, is adjudicated to be the child of the father by court decree as provided by Chapter 13, Family Code, was adopted by his father, or if the father executed a statement of paternity as provided by Section 13.22, Family Code, or a like statement properly executed in another jurisdiction, so that he and his issue shall inherit from his father and from his paternal kindred, both descendants, ascendant, and collateral in all degrees, and they may inherit from him and his issue. A person claiming to be a biological child of the decedent, who is not otherwise presumed to be a child of the decedent, or claiming inheritance through a biological child of the decedent, may petition the probate court for a determination of right of inheritance. If the court finds under the procedures of Chapter 13 of the Family Code [by clear and convincing evidence] that the purported father was the biological father of the child, the child is treated as any other child of the decedent for the purpose of inheritance and he and his issue may inherit from his paternal kindred, both descendants, ascendant, and collaterals in all degrees, and they may inherit from him and his issue. This section does not permit inheritance by a purported father of a child, whether recognized or not, if the purported father's parental rights have been terminated.

SECTION 10. (a) This Act takes effect September 1, 1991.

(b) Any litigation pending on or filed after the effective date of this Act that seeks to establish a parent-child relationship shall be tried in accordance with the provisions of this Act, notwithstanding that the parent or child may have died before the effective date of this Act.

SECTION 11. The importance of this legislation and the crowded condition of the calendars in both houses create an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three several days in each house be suspended, and this rule is hereby suspended.

The amendment was read and was adopted by a viva voce vote.
